The SpongeBob Musical - Director's Notes

I can remember very distinctly the conversation I had with our Music Director, Liz Francisco, about bringing The SpongeBob Musical to Methacton. She could probably have heard me roll my eyes through the phone when I agreed to give it a shot and look over the script. Since that first listen though, I knew this was a show I had to do. It was entertaining, catchy, and allowed our performers to really have fun from top to (Bikini) bottom.

Like any show, we have had our share of ups and downs. Weather has canceled rehearsals and illness has forced last minute adjustments to our schedules. However, through it all, our students persevered. We celebrated when we nailed a number in practice and worked as a team to review for those who may have missed the initial blocking.

What you see before you is a culmination of over 75 students working tirelessly to bring you the magic that is Bikini Bottom. From costumes to props, set painting to tech, musicians to actors, there has been student involvement above and beyond what I could have hoped for. Parents, friends, and staff members have stepped up to the plate to build, paint, and decorate as well. I do not have nearly enough space to go into the detailed thanks that each and every person involved in this production deserves.

I am constantly in awe of the talent within the Methacton High School Theatre Company and am so grateful that so many students decided to come along with us on this adventure. Congratulations to our entire cast and crew on a job well done.

Thank you for joining us, as well, and I truly hope that we have helped you have The Best Day Ever!

Howdy! If you're reading this, that means you care about me (vaguely), so time for you to learn some stuff about me for ☐ fun ☐ and whatever sick intrigue you may have about that one person playing the Sponge who tries to belt a high B! I'm Ben Walter, as you can sorta tell from the thing above, and I do be the Simple Sponge of the cast. Also- putting this in here now, if you actually read this, after the show, say "Goodbye" instead of "Hello" or any variation of it. It'll mess with some heads, and that's always a plus. Also- shoutout to Fran and Fitz for putting this all together! It's gonna be great~

Brianna Katz is a freshman at MHS and thrilled to be participating in SpongeBob this year. She performed in Mary Poppins Jr. at Arcola as she enjoys performing on stage. Brianna takes dance including ballet, lyrical and hip hop in the community. Brianna would like to thank her family for all the support. Special thanks to the Methacton Theatre family for helping her grow on stage and making it fun.

Brianna LaFreeda is a freshman at MHS and this is her second show at the high school. In the fall she played Aggie in "The Dining Room." She has been involved in many shows at Firedbird Theatre, COMAD, as well as MCT. Some of her favorite roles include Malificent (Sleeping Beauty), Evil Stepsister (Cinderella), Tessie (Annie) and Sharpay (High School Musical). She appreciates everyone's time and efforts on this show!

Nora Alaishuski is delighted to be performing as Mrs. Puff in this production of the Spongebob Musical! Nora had the opportunity to help with some art and design elements like the show logo, poster, Playbill cover, and graphics for some props you may see in the show such as Squidward's Tentacle Spectacle the Musical Playbill. Nora has been performing for about five years in numerous shows, and some of her notable roles include Mrs. Lovett in Sweeney Todd, Orin Scrivello DDS in Little Shop of Horrors, Anna in Frozen, and the Baker's Wife in Into the Woods! Nora would like to thank her castmates, the crew, the pit orchestra, Mrs. Francisco, and Mrs. Fitzgerald for making this such an amazing experience.

Olivia is grateful that she was given the opportunity to choreograph for the show, along with being a President and a PR/Fundraising officer. Olivia is also a part of WPG at Methacton where she holds the same officer positions. She has been dancing for many years and plans to continue her dance education in college while studying Sports Medicine. Olivia would like to thank her family for everything, her fellow presidents, Connor and Kareena, for the past 4 years and the rest of the Kitty Girlz for the fun times. Congrats to the seniors on a great last show!

Paige Alaishuski is a sophomore at MHS and thrilled to be a part of SpongeBob! She is so glad to continue her over 7 year passion of musical theatre, which has included over 20 shows. Some of her favorites were Elf as Jovie and Sweeney Todd as Tobias. Apart from performing, Paige loves to teach theatre to younger kids through internships like in Annie: Kids and The Addams Family. She would like to thank the production team and her castmates, especially the seniors. It's so clear how much they care for the theatre company, and their dedication and love has been an inspiration since she came to the high school. She truly hopes you enjoy the performance!

Quinn Adams is a senior at Methacton and is excited to perform in this year's production of "Spongebob the Musical." He has been involved with the theatre program at Methacton since his freshman year, performing in several productions such as "Brigadoon," "Urinetown," and many others. He would like to thank the Director Mrs. Fitzgerald, the Assistant Director Ms. Naylor, and Mrs. Francisco the Music Director for all of their hard work in putting together this show.

Rogan Mackenzie is a bit of a goofy character who has joined the Methacton Theater Company to spend more time with his friends, and gain a bit of experience into the fascinating world of high school musicals. This will be Rogan's first excursion into the world of musical theater, but that's not to say he's not enjoying it. He only hopes you'll have the same sentiment towards his performance.

Sonja Otero is excited to perform in her 3rd musical. She is most excited to play the role of Electric Skate this year because of how fun the role has been. Sonja hopes to continue performing throughout high school. She would like to thank her family for always being so supportive with her music. She has made amazing memories performing with her friends and she can't wait to make more.

Steve Hoehl is a junior at Methacton High School and is proud to be the Foley artist in this year's production of SpongeBob the Musical. Steve has played several well known characters in theatre productions in the past such as Sir Galahad from Spamalot and Rooster from Annie.

Taylor is a junior who is thrilled to be performing as a principal dancer in her 7th production with MHSTC! In addition to performing on stage, she serves as a vice president and secretary for the company and works as the dance captain and costume coordinator on the production staff. Outside of theater, Taylor is involved in WPG, Warrior Dance Squad, Habitat for Humanity, and a Student Ambassador. She has also been dancing for 14 years in all styles. Taylor would like to thank her family, friends, and directors for making this amazing show possible and for always supporting her. She would also like to give a special shout out to the amazing "Kitty Girlz" for always making her smile and laugh during rehearsals.

Tom MacNeel (Ensemble) is a freshman in Methacton and Spongebob: the Musical will be his second production within MHSTC. Being a part of the extremely talented cast of Spongebob is a great honor to Tom and he is excited for the many more shows he plans to be a part of during his time here over the next couple of years. Tom would like to thank everyone who has helped with this amazing show, and he hopes you enjoy this wonderful production!

Will Groschopp makes his third appearance as Perch Perkins, seen in the past roles of Mr. Darling in Peter Pan Jr., and Robertson Ay in Mary Poppins. Though he never watched Spongebob in his early years, Will is more than excited to take part in this production. Katie is very excited to perform tenor saxophone and bass clarinet in the pit for the Spongebob Musical. Having previously played in the 2020 Methacton production of Brigadoon, she is excited to experience playing with the MHSTC again. She would like to thank her family and sister Abigail, as well as her amazing director, Fran.

Stephanie Yu has been a member of the varsity girls bubble blower squad for 22 days. She has always wanted to blow bubbles and throw rocks at fellow classmates legally and was thrilled to find this wonderful opportunity! Stephanie can't wait to be a professional bubble blower and rock thrower for the Methacton Theater Company and wants to help other theater groups in the future with their bubble machine and rock throwing needs. She has had previous experience blowing bubbles in her younger ages from three up until her late teens, but has never used a professional bubble machine before. This is her first time professionally throwing rocks in a production and can't wait to get a hold on this new skill! Stephanie also enjoys parasailing.
